Subject: Position Requirements: Senior SAP Technical Support Analyst

BI Technologies, a leading global supplier of electronic components, is recruiting for an experienced SAP ABAP/4 programmer with a strong functional background in SD & FI/CO who wants to move into the technical support area for SAP.

Duties:

- Serve as the main technical resource for all functional leads at ECD/MCD for SAP.
- Serve as technical lead on all SAP projects.
- Maintain the patch and support level for all instances of SAP. Provide guidance to Project Team for all upgrades and patches.
- Troubleshoot problems and issues that occur within the production environment and correct them accordingly.
- Project lead for the Enterprise Portal
- SAP BW Basis administrator. Handle extracts from R/3 and the process chain that updates BW.
- Assist in developing technical standards for SAP.
- Serve as mentor to the other members of the ECD/MCD ABAP/Technical Support team.

Requirements:

- Must be able to provide technical advice on all aspects of SAP to the various functional leads.
- Must have a proven track record of working with the SAP functional (operational) staff in trouble shooting and resolving issues that come up in a daily production environment.
- Must have knowledge of SAP Basis and how to process patches and updates.
- Four-five years ABAP experience in a variety of modules with expertise in SAP scripts, layout sets, user exits, batch jobs, variants, and the ABAP Workbench. Very little actual programming will be required.
- Minimum of four (4) years specific experience with version 4.6C or higher with the SD or FI/CO modules.
- Must have the ability to work under compressed time frames with minimal supervision.
- Must be able to transfer knowledge and serve as a mentor to other members of the ABAP/Technical team.
- Strong analytical and systems design skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication.

BI Technologies is a wholly owned subsidiary of TT electronics. BI offers a comprehensive salary and benefit package commensurate with this caliber of position.

Interested candidates must send their confidential resume and salary requirements to BI Technologies Corp. Local Candidates Only! No Third Party enquiries will be answered.
